

WIRE TRANSFERS

Wire transfers are a convenient and secure way to make a donation, ensuring your gift reaches us quickly and directly.

Wire transfers are sent by one institution and received by another as an electronic investment of funds.

They require information from the party initiating the transfer, such as the recipient's name and account number and are completely secure.

Once you are ready to donate via wire transfer, please contact the Advancement Office for transfer information.